

Name: _____

EST. 1899
United for Literacy
Littératie Ensemble

SELF REFLECTION RUBRIC

How to use this rubric: Knowing what's next in the first year after high school requires self reflection. Use this rubric to determine how confident you feel about what's next and how prepared you are. You might refer back to your reflection on pg.6 of the What's Next booklet to help you assess your state of readiness.

I'm ready to go

I've got this

I think I get it

I'm not so sure

My Pathway
(pg.1,2)

I know my pathway. I know most of its benefits. I know most of the costs. I am able to take the steps required.

I know my pathway. I know at least 3 benefits. I know at least 3 costs. I know at least 3 steps required.

I think I know my pathway. I know of some benefits. I know of some costs. I know of some steps required.

I'm not sure what my pathway is. I don't know its benefits. I don't know its costs. I'm not sure of the steps required.

Reflection
(pg.4)

I can accurately describe what I value. I know what I need to sacrifice and am able to do it.

I know what I value. I can think of at least 2 things I'll need to sacrifice in order to achieve them.

I think I know what I value. I think I know what I need to sacrifice to prioritize the important things.

I'm having trouble describing my values. I'm not sure what I'll need to sacrifice to prioritize important things.

One Year Plan
(pg.5)

My plan lists most of the income and expense amounts for my chosen pathway(s). I can also adjust my financial choices using my plan.

My plan lists several income and expense amounts for my chosen pathway(s). I know how this plan will lead me to my pathway.

My plan lists some income and expense amounts for my chosen pathway(s). I think I know how this plan will help me.

I'm not sure what my income sources or expenses are. I'm not sure how this plan will help me.

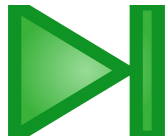

Name: _____

EST. 1899
United for Literacy
Littérature Ensemble

SELF REFLECTION RUBRIC

How to use this rubric: Assessing a peer gives them a second opinion on their work and allows you to think more clearly on your own. Use this rubric to give feedback to the peer you have been working with. Please ensure your assessment refers to the below criteria and most importantly, share why you assigned the level you did. Record your assessment on their booklet. Assess the Reflection and One Year Plan criteria only if time is available.*

They're ready to go

They've got this

I think they get it

They're not sure

My Pathway
(pg.1,2)

They know their pathway and most of its benefits and costs. They are able to share new ideas or resources about their pathway.

They know their pathway. They know at least 3 benefits and 3 costs. They know at least 3 steps required.

They know their pathway. They know 1 or 2 of the benefits and costs.

They are not sure what their pathway is. They are not sure of its benefits. They are not sure of its costs.

Reflection*
(pg.4)

They can accurately describe what they value. They know what they need to sacrifice and are plan to do it.

They know what they value. They can think of at least 2 things they will need to sacrifice in order to achieve them.

They think they know what they value. They think they know what they will need to sacrifice to prioritize the important things.

They are having trouble describing their values. They are not sure what they will need to sacrifice to prioritize important things.

One Year Plan*
(pg.5)

Their plan lists most income and expense amounts for their pathway. They can also adjust their financial choices using their plan as a guide.

Their plan lists several income and expense amounts. They know how their plan will lead them to their pathway.

Their plan lists a few income and expense amounts. They think they might know how their plan will help them.

They are not sure their plan will help them.